No more Scab in Sheep.

The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of the province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body where it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great for its result, is preferable to all ointment, still more, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one strobe of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of 3 160, I will facilitate all sheep farmers to revive their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness to make known this remedy and induce farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of one to at 48 which I hold at every one's disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the scab

Consumers of Ink.

The undersigned begs to inform the highly respected community of this city and the country, that he has established an

INK MANUFACTORY.

No. 116 Calle Victoria. —

And is prepared to sell as good Ink, as any made in any part of the globe, and warranted to retain its beautiful jet black color which it has at the moment when used, at 50 p% less than the same can be bought at any other house.

People under the impression, that they pay their 320 once for a quart bottle of English Ink, can have the same proved, that the art of the Ink cell for English, is made in this country, and based upon the public at such, that I am not ashamed to put my own Name on the labels, being fully convinced that my Ink is of a much superior quality, and possess more virtues than most of the Inks.

I—Ink is of a very rich black at the moment when used.

II—Retains its color.

III—Runs freely off the pen.

IV—Is a preserver of the eyes to those, who have much to write at night because they need not to force their eyesight, to see what they have written.

For the reasons explained, I hope that my publicity generally entertained of genuine Home Manufacture will be laid aside, and all I ask is to try the same which will be a benefit to the Inventor, and the country, in assisting Home Industry.

N. B.—Orders left at the office will duly punctually attended to and delivered free of any charges.

URQUIZA AT THE BAR.

Congress—Deputies.

The Chamber met yesterday; Sor Urburu in the chair. Minutes were read from the Senate, informing the Deputies that it had ratified Sr. Travellio's contract for navigating the Vermejo, and sanctioned the abolition of the 340 $ doubloon.

The secretary then read a project by Sr. Cabral, of Corrientes, to the following effect—

Whereas—

It is notorious that General Urquiza, Governor of Entre Rios, is implicated in the treasonous rebellion of General Peñaloza of Rioja—be it enacted:

1. The National Government shall appoint commissioners to investigate the culpability of said Urquiza in the matter.

2. The commissioners shall have full powers to proceed without delay to make a process and judicial report of the matter, to Congress.

Deputy Cabral shewed the motives for this measure, which was not dictated by political edition, or a spirit of speed to public tranquility. It was notorious that since the battle of Caseros, the province of Entre Rios was delivered up to the will of one man, that his presence in the republic was a constant menace to the new order of things—that the Entre Rios journals preached sedition and revolt freely (excepting the Democracia)—that all the demagogues, Potrillo, Minnet, &c, declared their alliance with the Governor of Entre Rios—that a recent correspondence has been intercepted, discovering a special embassy from Urquiza to Peñaloza.

How long will ministerial conjurers deceive the nation, by saying "things are all right, let us plant cotton, and by down railways?" It is to think of progress. while we find real spots on the frontiers of Rioja, Cordoba and S. Luis. Time enough is beyond the steps, bata hundred petty ones start up among us, or find refuge in the neighboring republics. Let us put down these petty and railways out of our head, make the National executive be firmly constituted, and all citizens made to obey the Law. Law is the best of all the foreign General Urquiza, for, in the words of Washington, the best policy in any Government is, probably, to try requires to succeed boldly and openly, without respect to rank, riches, or power.

Some applause was heard in the galleries, and "Bravo! bravo!" from the B. Ayrean deputies.

Sr Ruiz Moreno had been in the ante-chamber during most of the time, and entered the house with a haughty air, before Mr. Cabral concluded, listening to the last sentences with a deep smile and curl of the lip. He attempted to reply, but was prevented by the B. Ayrean deputies, who unanimously requested the bill should be sent to committee.

He then demanded of the chairman to be heard, but was again interrupted. He therefore contented himself with saying the last speaker had grossly calumniated the province of Entre Rios and its Governor, (Cabral—not at all.)

D. Pastor Obligado said Sor Moreno's justification of Urquiza was ridiculous.

Sor Moreno replied that the project in itself was supremely absurd.

One third of the members seconding the bill, it was sent to the Constitutional committee.

The chairman announced that the Finance committee had reported favorably of Mr Wheelwright's contract, which would be, therefore, debated on Friday.

Messrs. Zaviria and Moreno presented a bill to require the Secretary to furnish them copies of the document about to be discussed in order to answer the remarks made to it of assembling merely to hear them read when no other business required their attendance.

Sent to committee.

The chamber then rose.

VOTE OF CENSURE.

The Constitutional committee has thrown out Deputy Alsina's vote of Censure on President Mitre for presuming to inaugurate the Cordoba railway works at Rosario. The bone of contention Mr. General Mitre's popularity are believers in the Flores system and its attendant advantages!

One of the committee obstinately held out for the vote of censure, and it is right to enquire into the circumstances giving this factious opposition so much weight. Dr. Montes de Oca is said to be in-law to the republican trumpeter of Flores, who acts as sub-Secretary and editor, in opposite interests: we have his real name to expose that he brother-in-law and "Co-laborator" of the Tribuna are of accord with Dr. Varela, in the vote of censure.

"Entre la piedra y cocodan la mano", is a Spanish proverb, and it is very true on the vote of Censure on the President was concerted in the very Government house. If any abuse were involved by Gen. Mitre's trip to Rosario, we should be foremost in applauding the censure that the brother-in-law and "Co-laborator" of the Tribuna are of accord with Dr. Varela, in the vote of censure.

"Entre la piedra y cocodan la mano", is a Spanish proverb, and it is very true on the vote of Censure on the President was concerted in the very Government house. If any abuse were involved by Gen. Mitre's trip to Rosario, we should be foremost in applauding the censure that the brother-in-law and "Co-laborator" of the Tribuna are of accord with Dr. Varela, in the vote of censure.

The gentlemen before the public are, however, lay themselves open to the imputation of malevolent hostility towards the Cordoba railway, postponing this great national enterprise to an unseasonable time, for the sake of jealousy of the Executive, which shews its spite and venom in every trivial question that can serve as a mark for dissatisfaction.

Of course M. M. Alsina and Montes de Oca will proclaim their strict adherence to the letter of the Constitution, impugning the minister on technical reports. Why then not arraign President Mitre for having gone to dine at Belgrano, or spending two days at Ranchos? Why does not the Senate condemn the vice-president for having dared to visit his estancia at Chascomus during the recess?

Those who remember the rumor of an intended revolution in this city, during the President's trip to Rosario, may perhaps motives were actuated the committee to reject Alsina's motion. It is felt that every peaceful citizen is bound to strengthen Mitre's hands, that the present imperatively calls for unanimous action, and that those who excite doubts, censures or disagreements, from whatever motive, good or bad, are weakening public confidence, and thereby fomenting those politicalfires which have lately led into volcanoes in Rioja and B. Oriental,

RIVER PLATE PROSPECTS

For some time it was believed that President Mitre's government had put a seal upon all revolutions in the River Plate, if not for ever, at least for a good long period. It was thought also, that although a few unprincipled gauchos in the interior were creating disturbances, a general peace reaction had taken place, and that the inhabitants of this great republic would rise en mas o against any caudillo who would dare to attempt another civil war. Even the very Minister of War himself seems to have imbibed the same delusive notions, and regarding his soldiers as no longer necessary in the barracks, where they could turn out on a moment's call, he scattered them over the frontier line, to defend life and property against the savages.

But this was all a delusion. Two newspapers and two soldiers have de facto stroyed this happy dream—Peñaloza, and the "Literal", Flores and the "Tribuna."

There are times to be silent, and times to speak out. When we witness the stupendous injury which these soldiers and their organs have caused, and are causing, to our adopted country, we feel indeed that the occasion has arrived when we must speak out. Not that foreigners lose more by these continued revolutions than natives: far from it we verily believe that experience has proved the contrary. But that honesty, justice, integrity, conscience, principle—in a word, every moral feeling instigates us to raise our voice, and implore of the man who rules the nation, to stay the immolation of his country.

We said—and we repeat it—that the Flores invasion has done this country more injury than 50 Cepedas; and we will prove our assertion. Flores was not arrested; and why? Because it is said that the Government could not stop him, as he had done no act to criminate himself. But the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Acting-Secretary of War, by their heavy recognizances to keep the peace.

It was known to his Excellency the Minister of the Interior that Flores meditated an invasion. He wrote to the Governor of Entre Rios advising him of the fact! Why, therefore, was not Flores arrested, and obliged to give two sureties to keep the peace? Because if the Government did so, the Tribuna would attack it. Why? Because President Berro is said to be a Blanco, and the Sub-Secretary a Colorado. Why? Because the curse of these countries is, and has been, revolution, and nothing could be more popular with a certain party than a revolution against the best government the Banda Oriental ever enjoyed.

The friend of the National Government, we feel it now more than ever our duty to censure its vacillating policy, and demand of President Mitre some overt proof that rebellions and invasions hatched in the city of Buenos Ayres are discountenanced by his Government, although every paper in town defends them!

If the object of Flores and his friends was to destroy the Banda Oriental, shut up the saladeros, sweep away hundreds of thousands of cattle, mares and sheep, and plunge the country into the most hopeless state of civil war, it is at least to be hoped that the Government of a country which has suffered such prostration and exhaustion from the selfsame causes, will not be the instrument of its own destruction, and bona fide agent to realize the Vandal.

But we ask not his motives: the deed is done; the act is committed: let us talk no more of railroads, immigration, cotton planting, and such like. Rather let us look up all the muskets and swords throughout the land. Until the flame which has been so sacrilegiously lit in the republic of the Uruguay be extinguished, and the nefarious leaders of the revolt punished until the newspapers of Entre Rios and Buenos Ayres be prohibited from defending invasions and promoting revolution, until Flores and Peñaloza be made examples of, as disturbers of the public peace; until Ministerial officials cease to intrigue and to compromise the Government by their revolutionary principles: until the Government has the courage to inflict the punishment of death on the chief culprit, party which is driving the country headlong to perdition; until the execrable system of bribery and trituring over all morality be forgot ten, and peace become the watchword throughout the republic, we have no hope of regeneration—no belief in real progress.

THE DIPLOMATIC QUESTION.

Although we do not believe much in foreign interventions in these countries and experience has proved that they invariably do more harm than good, we take exception to the doctrine laid down by the Nacion Argentina, as regards the rights, duties, and powers of foreign Ministers in general.

The object or utility of a foreign Minister, is not only to bind more closely the relations existing between two countries, but also to watch over and protect the lives and properties of the subjects of the country which he represents. It is the duty therefore of the Minister, when disturbances take place, to resort to every legal method to perform this duty. To deny this would be to deny the very essence of diplomacy.

Argentines are horrified that 4 Ministers should have the temerity or audacity, to interfere in a matter which does not concern them. But if there never existed a single foreigner in the Banda Oriental, nor a pound sterling worth of property, the foreign Ministers have an inherent right to offer their services to the effusion of blood. History affords so many precedents, that it is a matter of surprize to us the peculiar light in which this late display has been viewed.

England, France, and Austria, are now interfering on behalf of the Poles, and the joint protest of those 3 powers, and the joint visit of their Ministers, has not caused such a sensation in St. Petersburg as the late visit of the Ministers in Buenos Ayres. The Argentines pretend to be astounded at such diplomatic audacity, and the matter is turned into a Pitalal joke by some of the Paris journals.

The foreign ministers witness the robbery that is at present going on, the bloodthirsty position of Peñaloza, and the scandalous efforts of one man, without a flag, without followers, without even what can be called a party. This man is allowed to prowl about through a peaceful country, destroying all trade and commerce, and likely, owing to the solid state of the country, to remain at large for a lengthened period. Naturally anxious to use their influence for the peace of the country which they have thought proper to wait upon the President of this country, in the hope of obtaining an expression of opinion, and to clear up their doubts and rumours, so current at present in Montevideo and elsewhere.

The Ministers of Spain and Chile undertook a rather ungrateful task, but we deny that they exceeded their authority in any iota, or that they were influenced by any motive except the due observance of the country and the protection of foreign property.

We cannot agree with our colleagues, the Argentine dignity has been offended. Argentines themselves, have at times been very anxious to secure the services of foreign ministers when they yet require their assistance. It is therefore the height of bad taste to allow such scurrilous epithets as those applied to the Ministers in Montevideo to be used against the minister of one of the most powerful nations on the Globe.

The unfortunate European powers will receive from Dr. Elizalde, per next packet, despatches as long and as tedious as his memorandum to the President. Probably Lord John Russell will probably resign rather than be obliged to go through the document, and Sr. Drago Mitre will be obliged to write an artful position to explain to the Emperor Napoleon, that minister Elizalde, never uttered the words put into his mouth by the Nacional.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Consul Phibbs's letter to Dr. Elizalde, we regret is so long that we cannot find room for it. It is a most interesting document, and bears a high appreciation to the spirit es of the ex Consul Oconnel of France.

The news from the very best authority that owing to the exertions of Mr. Sampson in London, and Mr Phibbs in Liverpool, River Plate matters are in a most favorable state for capitalists men in the right places. If General Mitre will only adopt this motto he will create a multitude of friends. Mr Wheelwright left on Monday for Ensenada, we believe that the object of his trip is to inspect the progress of the works in order to be able to write in England on the matter. Mr. Simpson accompanied him: this gentleman we believe, purposes leaving in the course of a few months for England, connected with the Boca railroad, which appears to bear is going to cost a trifle more than was thought.

The brokers in the Once Setiembre are determined to oppose the free trade scheme of Dr Sarsfield, on what grounds we are at a loss to say, as they represent neither the producing nor consuming interests. All the protective laws ever framed have been a heavy grievance to the industrious farmer. We might as well, therefore have cheap bread as not, so long as the price in this country is not of the slightest benefit.

The subscription for the medals for the Loss brothers, we hear is all but completed, only these hundred dollars more being required.

The 25th May will be a great day, this year the battery Once de Setiembre will fire three salutes, the 24 of the line and artillery will form in the Plaza under Gen. Nazar, and 4 bands will be in attendance. Our old friend, Mr. Syntax, has written to us stating that he means to attend with Grizzle.

Sturday is indeed a holiday in the bull-ring, for Mr. Lamb has given a day of business.

NEW CUSTOM TARIFF.

The following is the project of the Finance Minister now before Congress. It will probably pass with a few alterations, and come into force next August.

I. Imports

1. Gold and silver, coined or in bullion, plants, green fruits, firewood and charcoal, are free.

2. The Executive may order free admission to, seeds for planting, church ornaments, scientific instruments, furniture and tools of emigrants, or new enterprises.

3. Precious stones, jewellery, gold or silver lace, silks 8 p. c.

4. All other articles 15 p. c.

II. Exports.

1. Hides, wool, &c. In fine, all classes of native produce 5 p. c.

2. Gold and silver, coined or in bullion free.

III. Extra duties.

1. All articles subject to import duty pay 2 and a half per cent extra dues

2. All articles charged on exportation pay 5 per cent extra dues

It is to be hoped the taxation on books and printing materials (as propos ed) will be rejected, as Congress is always disposed to exempt these branches from all impost. The charge on raw materials, such as iron, is monstrous: all the foundries in town would close on the schedule, and we learn the commercial body is about to convene a meeting with the object of petitioning the Executive or Congress for a re consideration of some changes calculated to prejudice, if not destroy, the growing enterprises of Argentine industry.

THE O'CONNELL MONUMENT.

We have to acknowledge the receipt of 100 $ nps, for the above national testimonial, from Mr Thomas Hibbert of 9 Villa Nevada and 2/8 from Mr. J. T. Fitzgerald, Fortin de Areco. It has humiliating reflection that 20,000 Irishmen in B Aires all possessing considerable riches, have not contributed one penny each, to the most praise worthy object yet recommended to their generosity. The exertions of the inspirited, Liberal testimonial, Lancashire operatives, and S. African missions, are all good in their way, and we are happy to see these indiscriminate charities attended to——But the first duty of those who can claim the Island of Saints for their patrimony, is to give a sterling proof of gratitude and veneration for the memory of the great Tribune, the hero of Emancipation the Liberator of Ireland, and Conqueror of Repeal.

Australia, Canada and the U. States have sent their donations. Even the outcast convicts in the midst of Australian distress and general misfortune, gives liberally, for the perpetuation of that illustrious name which, after 16 years of oblivion, rises from the ocean of the grave and overshadows the scene of its recent glories. All parties, creeds, and districts have united in this same laudable purpose.

In Valparaiso a dozen patriotic Irish exiles have contributed double the amount received in Buenos Ayres. The splendid statue, which will rise in Sackville St. Dublin, with the simple inscription "O'Connell," will eclipse the whole external beauty of our chosen capital, and attract the notice of the stranger, no less than inspire the patriotism of a rising generation. The former, in the words of the address to Irishmen throughout the globe) will feel that Dovelace has yet great things in store for the nation that can bring through its tears, with pride on the past, and confidence in the future. And Irish mothers will point to the venerable statue, and the liberator, telling their children to imitate so glorious a prototype.

As the column of Trajan at R me was adorned with the pictured history of his exploits, so the National monument will bear, engraved on Irish granite, the names of those who contributed to its erection. List us hope Buenos Aires will produce more than 6 grateful Irishmen. All subscribers to this paper, who have not yet put down their names for 20 $ or upwards, can order directly or through our agents, as we close the list by next French packet, and will forward a cheque for the amount, to our bankers in Dublin.

MONTEVIDEO & GLASGOW.

Last night the Scotch Commission of the Association of Montevideo for the encouragement of Glasgow trade in the markets, in order to test the quality and suitability of the article for general consumption, gave a dinner to a select representative company of gentlemen in Wilson's Restaurans, West Nile Street, when specimens were cooked and served up. The dinner was occupied by Graham Gilmour, Esq. Consul for the Republic of Uruguay, and the duties of occupier were discharged by William Burns, Esq. Amongst the gentlemen present, were the Rev. William Arnot, the Rev. Mr Vassall, R. C. C; Councillor Richardson, Bailie Dunlop, Councillor Muir, Dr. H. B. Maldood, Dr Adams, Dr Lamahill, Dr Wilson, Dr Perry, Captain Douglas, David More, Esq., John Stirling, Esq., Henry Crawford, Esq. J. Stoel, Esq., &c., &c.

After the soups, the beef dressed in various ways was served up. It is pleasant tasted and palatable, and is fitted to make a good meal. The cloth having been removed.

The Chairman gave "The Queen," and "The Royal Family," which were cordially responded to.

The Chairman afterwards proposed "The Defenders of the Country," and "The President and Governor of the Republic of Uruguay," which were also warmly pledged.

The Chairman then rose, and proposed "Success to the Association of Montevideo for the Exportation of Dry served Beef to new markets." He said —"The Commissioners for Scotland have invited you here to-night that you may publicly test the quality of the beef which we have placed before you here at dinner; that you may pronounce on its excellence and merits, and its suitability for the wants of the different classes of the community. We sincerely believe that the beef which you have partaken is good, wholesome, and nutritious, and that these qualities, combined with its very cheap cost, ought to command it to public favor and acceptance. Deeply interested in everything that tends to promote the commercial prosperity of that republic which has honoured me by accrediting me as its representative in this great community. I feel it to be at once my duty and my privilege to preside on this occasion, and in introducing this, which I may call the toast of the evening, I need very little to say what has called this association into existence and what the object which we, as one of its foreign, and its great local commission, have in view. The Republic of Uruguay, of which Montevideo is the chief port, is pre-eminently a cattle grazing country. Its pasturage is well adapted therefor, and its plains are covered with sheep and cattle, the rearing of which forms the staple trade of the country; and the extent of fertility of the soil and salubrity of the climate have shown the Republic to be most excellently adapted for the trade. The exports to all as of the world have been chiefly of the produce of these cattle and sheep, viz., hides, horns, tallow, wool, hair, and bones; but the exportation of the meat or flesh of the animals slaughtered has hitherto been limited. Some of the leading merchants resolved to form themselves into an association to find new markets for their ever increasing production and looking abroad for the world as the better markets than Great Britain. The association forthwith appointed commissioners in three different parts of the United Kingdom, one of which has invited you here to-night to ask you to aid them in introducing this beef to the working classes and others in our own country. The result of the trial which have hitherto received the jerked beef are Cuba and Brazil. To Great Britain the merchants of Montevideo look for a large outlet for their jerked beef. The best parts of the animals are, by a simple process, cured and shipped; and the remainder, even in the expectation of a large demand, the consumers here in Scotland will be able to buy it at threepence per lb. It is the wish of honourable gentlemen, as I succeed, and retains all its juice and nourishment. You have found it to-day, I hope, good and nourishing; and I trust you will have no hesitation in recommending it. The method of cooking it is very simple and very economical. After a few hours steeping in fresh water, it is ready to be stewed with potatoes and onions, and forms an excellent Irish stew, or to be pulled to pieces and stewed with carrots, &c. to be minced and made into pies, or dressed in the various modes which the cooks art or the fancy of the epicure ingenuity may suggest. We have called all sections to pronounce on its merits. We desire commercially to advance the trade and progress of the Republic and all we ask is that we desire philanthropically to add comfort and prosperity to all classes of this community. I have no objection to state respectfully ask you to aid us. (Cheers) (The toast was very warmly responded to.)

Dr Macleod next gave "Success to the Glasgow Commission." Speaking of the beef he said, that if they were able to introduce it, it would be of great use to the working classes. It was perfectly wholesome, as they had all had an opportunity of judging at dinner, and in a word, that it was totally nutritious. He should not like, however, to give an opinion professionally until he had made a further examination of it. Experiments could be made, those no doubt would be looked to.

The toasts afterwards proposed were—"Commercial Interests of Glasgow", by Mr. Richardson; "The Prosperity of the Working Classes, by Mr. More; "The Charitable Institutions of Glasgow," by Mr. Smith; "The Medical Profession", by Mr. M'Culloch; "The Press", and "The Clergy".

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

Much interest has been excited in Paris by the dispatch of two official representatives of the marine of Napoleon by the Emperor's special desire, in order to report upon the success of the unimmortalle tunic, which has been tried amid the heaviest seas raging during the equinox of the mistral. Five sailors had been chosen from the various ships of war lying in the harbour, Only one of the number could swim. All five, however, were soon beheld tar out at sea, walking over the waves as serenely as if they had been crossing a hayfield in summer time, and were merrily compelled to step high in order to avoid trending on the bay. The tunic is made in the form of an ordinary paletot, and is easily put on and taken off. One of the sailors was coolly smoking a cigar during the whole time of the experiment, while another was eating and drinking from a little tray which he carried before him. The last was and most conclusive lesson was the first that the business will be continued by Samuel B. Hale and John F. Pearson under the same style of
